Terms, conditions and liability

The event is limited to 25 organs. Attendance depends on the order that applications are received rather than the choice of the event organizer.

If we cannot accept your entry we hope you will understand.

The event is situated at the inner town of Schwaz with various playing areas

There is a change of the playing area every half hour.

The playing areas are spaced out so that the organs don't disturb each other.

If this does happen, we will find a new location for you.

Where the organs will play is dependent on the audience. You will allowed comfort breaks!

Amplifiers aren't allowed

Organ owners take part at their own responsibility.

Placing and attendance of their organs/instrument is part of the organ owner's responsibility.

The event organizer provides a secure accommodation for the organs on Saturday afternoon

There is no liability of the event organizer in case of theft or damage of the organs/instruments

With your written application you agree with our terms and conditions and commit yourself, after our confirmation, to take part with your organ.

In case of changes, entrants are to tell the event organizer promptly.

Entrants must strictly pay attention to ant Covid-rules in force at the time of the event.
